

What does the Department of Health do?

Family Health

Livingston/ Wyoming WIC

Providing benefits and services over the phone and in-person. Call 243-7530 or text 888-479-4129 to make an appointment and receive services. Email wic@livingstoncountyny.gov

Perinatal Infant Community Health Collaborative

Free home visits for:

- Birth Control
 - Pregnancy Planning
 - Breastfeeding
- Call 243-7299!

Early Intervention

Support and services for children under the age of 3 with developmental delays or disabilities. For those at risk for delays, ongoing developmental monitoring is available via Child Find. Call 243-7299 or email earlyintervention@livingstoncountyny.gov

Children and Youth With Special Health Care Needs

A referral program for youth aged 0-21 living with a physical, developmental, behavioral, or emotional illness or condition that requires extra support services. Call 243-7299 or email cysncn@livingstoncountyny.gov

Lead Poisoning Prevention Program

Working to protect children from the harmful effects of lead exposure. Education, testing, and environmental hazard reduction available. For more information, call 243-7299.

Pre-K

Supports children age 3-5 years old who are eligible to receive special education services through their school. County:

- Manages provider contracts.
- Processes payment of services.
- Provides a municipal representative to each school district's Committee on Preschool Special Education.

Clinical Care

Immunizations (Vaccines)

Immunizations are offered on an individual basis. Call 243-7299 to schedule an appointment or for more information.

Center for Sexual Health and Wellness

In-person and telehealth services for teens and adults at our Dansville, Geneseo, and Mt. Morris locations. Confidential, low or no cost services include: birth control, STI testing, pregnancy testing, and more! Call 243-7540 today!

Mental Health/Community Services

Mental Health is accepting new patients at this time. Staff are available in the office for crisis needs in Geneseo and Mt. Morris. Call 243-7250. Individuals in crisis can call 9-8-8.

Hospice

Providing end of life support for those wanting comfort focused care. Call 243-7290 for more information.

Community

Environmental Health

Providing inspection of regulated facilities to reduce risk of hazards. Call 243-7280 or visit our website at: www.livingstoncounty.us/eh

Health Education

Providing school and community presentations on public health issues. Call 243-7299 for more information.

For more information about available services and eligibility, call 243-7270 or visit:

www.livingstoncountyny.gov/doh.htm

"Commitment to Leading the Community for a Healthier and Safer Tomorrow."

12/2025